Foreword

In presenting this publication to our patrons and friends we wish to say that it is by no means a complete record of our school year. We have had many pleasures not recorded here and in this confusing world we have often felt uncertain and dissatisfied. Nevertheless, on these pages you will find an account of our school as we hope to remember it through MAPLE LEAVES, 1946.

Dedication

When we look back upon our earliest years at Dublin we see an exemplary life, fully deserving the name teacher in every sense. We can think of no one whose noble character has shed a greater influence for good upon her students, or one whose every action has been more nearly for the betterment of our school and community. It has not been necessary for all students at Dublin to be pupils of Miss Hattie's to see evidence of her teaching. That is everywhere — that is Dublin. She served here faithfully for more than 50 years, so it is with a feeling of deepest affection and gratitude that we dedicate Maple Leaves 1946 to

What We Think of Our Seniors

1. MARY FRANCES ALEXANDER . . . Ingrid Bergman
   ". . . One more dream and he's mine."

   Capable; sincere; going places in this world.

2. WALLACE BROWN . . . Wally Beery
   "And let the rest of the world go by!"

   A great guy; thoroughly dependable.

3. HALLIE A. BROWN . . . June Haver
   ". . . And you said, 'Yes, I do,' to me."

   Quiet; sincere; ideal homemaker.

4. GARNET BRUCE . . . Walter Pidgeon
   ". . . Don't say 'No'; say 'Maybe'."

   Pretty good chap, we think.

5. MARY BRAMMER . . . Ethel Barrymore
   ". . . Hitch your wagon to a star."

   Brains and industry! That's Mary.

6. FRANCES COLMAN . . . Agnes Morehead
   "Red sails in the sunset, 'way out on the sea . . ."

   Loads of fun; no better sport in school.

7. NELLIE COX . . . Jane Withers
   ". . . Where did you get those eyes?"

   Cut-up? You bet. Never misses a trick of fun.

8. MARGARET DECK . . . Martha Raye
   "My dreams are getting better all the time."

   Get comfortable, everybody. Here's a story. She'll talk your ears off and you'll like it.

9. EDITH DeHART . . . Judy Garland
   ". . . Don't let your sweet love die."

   Always a smile — never a frown.

10. GLORIA DULANEY . . . Eleanor Parker
    "More and more this heart of mine confesses . . ."

    Still water runs deep. True blue is Gloria.

11. ADA FERRELL . . . June Allyson
    "Dan—O, Dan—O, Daniel in the li—li—lion's den . . ."

    Looks, brains! My goodness! Why do some folks get everything?

12. ANNA FERRELL . . . Jeanne Crain
"Somewhere in the west, we'll build a sweet little nest . . ."

A mischievous twinkle in her eyes; fair of face, too!

13. PAULINE GALLOWAY . . . Lauren Bacall
". . . Hubba, Hubba, Hubba!"

Yes, that's Polly you hear! "Go-od morning!" Face, fact, figure!

14. LILA HARRELL . . . Maureen O'Hara
"I don't wanna set the world on fire."

Quiet and worth knowing, too.

15. BILLY HYLTON . . . Lon McCallister
"I'm lonesome, I guess, that's all."

What a fellow! What a tease! What a wolf? NO!

16. NORMAN KELLER . . . Bob Hutton
". . . I'll get by as long as I have you."

Handsome, quiet — yep! That's Keller! Answer to some maiden's prayer.

17. LOUISE KING . . . Cas Daley
"Every little breeze seems to whisper Louise . . ."

When Margaret runs down, ask Louise for a story. Loads of fun, that girl!

18. JIMMY KIRBY . . . Mickey Rooney
"Some Sunday (evening) . . ."
"Caledonia, what makes your big head so hard?"

Foolishness, nonsense, cut-up! But that fellow has brains, too!

19. J. W. LINKOUS . . . Dane Clark
"I'm sweet on Candy and Candy's sweet on me."

What a wolf! (But a nice wolf.)

20. EDITH LYON . . . Alice Faye
"Ah, sweet mystery of life . . ."

A fine example; quiet, sincere, and oh! those grades.

21. LORENA McCAMY . . . Paulette Goddard
". . . You gotta be a football hero."

A merry heart, a winning smile.

22. FRANCES McCOY . . . Joan Crawford
"Sometimes I wonder why I spend each lonely night dreaming of you . . ."

Studious, quiet, sincere, the real McCoy.

23. MILDRED MORRIS . . . Teresa Wright
". . . Aren't you glad you're you?"

Yes, we are, Mildred — 'cause we like you just as you are.

24. SARAH MOUNGRIDES . . . Katherine Grayson
". . . I'll be loving you always."

A singer of sweet songs; style; charm, and a high-pitched giggle, too!

25. ARLENA ROBERTSON . . . Betty Grable
"I can't begin to tell you how much you mean to me . . ."

As constant as the stars; soft voice, pleasing personality.

26. DORLEEN SMART . . . Donna Reed
"We strolled the lane together . . ."

Quiet; precious thing in a small package.

27. ROY SOUTHERN . . . Ed Gardner
"Rivah, stay 'way from mah do'."

Brains? Yes. Energy? Not much. Mischievousness? What do you think?

28. HOWARD STANTON . . . Van Johnson
"Stars in your eyes . . ."
". . . Somewhere a voice is calling."

"Life and Loves of Stanton" — that'll be a book some day. Some guy, or is he part wolf?

29. VERLEY TURPIN . . . Deanna Durbin
"You don't need a halo or wings . . ."

Gentle, sweet, quiet; an "A" grade senior.

30. RUTH WHEELING . . . Larraine Day
"Waitin' for my man to come home . . ."

We don't know her so well but we all like her.

31. LILA WHITE . . . Judy Canova
"Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition. and we'll all stay free."

Blonde bombshell! Whacky! Friendly and talkative.

32. BOBBIE WILSON . . . Ella Raines
"You walk in and my life begins
. . . Symphony of love."

Nice to come home to; swell to have in school, with looks, brains, and that certain something that makes a queen of a modern girl.

The Baseball Season

The Dublin Dukes of 1945 weren't particularly successful, due to the lack of experience and weight.

We opened our season on September 14th with Pulaski and after a hard-fought game in which Brown and Akers were hurt, the Orioles won 7-0.

On September 18 we were hosts to Blacksburg. After a fast and hard game the Indians were victorious, 18-0.

After a two-weeks' rest we welcomed Narrows to our field October 5, when the Green Waves rolled over a score 28-7.

The next week, October 12, we went to Danville to play Schoolfield's Green Tide. We were defeated 12-6.

On October 12 we went to Vinton to play the William Byrd Terriers. After playing one of our best games against a highly favored team, we were beaten, 18-6.

Next, we journeyed to Pearisburg where we had our toughest streak of luck when Keller, backfield, got his leg broken. We tried our best to overcome the loss and win but the Red Devils defeated us 25-6.

We went out of the state the next week to Mt. Airy, N. C., where we were defeated by the Blue Knights, 62-6.

On November 16 we traveled to Galax where we played our best game of the season although we were defeated 31-7.

The next week we played Radford, where we enjoyed a dance after being beaten 38-0.

We were hosts to Blacksburg on November 30 when we dedicated our field, naming it "Soldier Field," as a fitting memorial to our many alumni who were gallant in the fight for freedom. The game was hard fought and fast and we battled to a tie, 7-7, thus closing our 1945 season.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank Mr. C. V. Connelly, for whose guidance and leadership we are deeply grateful.

THE DUBLIN DUKES, 1945.

Farmer-Farmerette Ball

Music and dancing! St. Patrick's Day decoration! Queen Bobbie and King Norman! That, together with the Court, made the Farmer-Farmerette Ball our most gala occasion. Never have our girls seemed more lovely or our boys more handsome. And we mustn't forget little Barbara Collier, who made a charming crown bearer.

The Prince and the Princess were chosen from the Junior Class and were Richard Guthrie and Jane Jackson.

The other attendants from each room were: Mildred Miller and Sammy Smith; Irene King and Jack Farmer, from the Sophomore Class; Alama Akers and Billy Agee, Gertrude Thomas and Buddy Sutton; Betty Jane Lester and Jimmy Brillheart, from the Freshman Class.

Jokes

Jokes

Give Miss Keffer an inch and she thinks she is a ruler.

Jimmy Kirby: I say, sweet, would a kiss be out of place?

Nellie Cox: Well, it shouldn't be if you have any sense of direction.

A TEACHER'S LIFE

1. The infant.
2. The little girl.
3. The miss.
4. The young woman.
5. " " "
6. " " "
7. " " "

"Why are you so depressed, Mr. Ferrell?"

"The horrible cost of living, old chap, constant bills for materials and paint."

"For the house?"

"No, for the daughters."

Mrs. Grigsby: Where did such an expression as "Step on it, kid" originate?

George Okley: When Sir Walter Raleigh laid down his cloak for Lizzie.

Mary Frances Alexander: What's that you've got in your buttonhole?

Mary Brammer: That's a chrysanthemum.

Mary Frances: Looks like a rose to me.

Mary Brammer: Nope, it's a chrysanthemum.

Mary Frances: Whadda mean? Spell it.

Mary Brammer: K-r-i-s— By golly, it is a rose!

Mr. Wygal: You sleepy? Were you out late last night?

Wallace Brown: I had to sit up with the baby, sir.

Mr. Wygal: I see. What was her name?

Edith DeHart: Believe it or not, I said "No" to six different men last summer.

Lorena McCamy: I know, dear —those door-to-door salesmen are getting to be pests.

Miss Lindsey: Jimmy, shall I cut your meat for you?

Jimmy Rollins: Thank you, no, Miss Lindsey; we have had some at home lately almost as tough as this.

Among my pupils in my Chemistry class was a lad who had a tendency to monopolize discussions. I decided that such a troublesome habit should be called to the attention of his parents. On his report card I wrote: "Edwin is a good student but he talks too much."

Several days later the report was returned. Underneath my comment the boy's father had added: "You should meet his mother."

Jo Ann: I'd like to buy a bottle of reducing medicine.

Dr. Cecil: Anti-fat?

Jo Ann: No, it's for my uncle.

Lila: She told me that you told her the secret I told you not to tell her.

Pauline: The mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her.

Lila: Well, don't tell her that I told you she told me.

Miss Alexander: If you had $12 in one pocket and $10 in the other, what would you have.

J. W. Linkous: Somebody else's pants.

Bobby Wilson: Buddy, why do you call me appendix?

Buddy R.: Because it costs so much to take you out.

Red Crabtree: Why do all signs say "Fresh Country Eggs"?

Frances Coleman: Because everybody knows you city eggs are all fresh.

Bill Brodie: Do you know how rats get in here?

Jack Farmer: Naw!

Bill Brodie: By golly, I guess you are right.

Bill Linkous: Why do they keep putting jokes in the paper about Scotsmen being tightwads?

Richard: Why don't you call up the editor and ask.

Bill Linkous: What! And who would pay for the phone call?

Kissing spreads germs,
It has been stated,
But kiss me, kid—
I'm vaccinated.

Miss Francis: I want you all to remember that a fool can ask questions that wise men can't answer.

Norman Keller: Oh, so that is why I failed the test you gave us.

Mrs. Copenhaver: Why are you always late for school?

Pauline: Well— it's like this, on the way to school I keep seeing signs that say "School Zone, Go Slow."

Billy Hylton's favorite poem:

I see no evil;
I hear no evil;
I speak no evil.
Boy, am I a sissy!

Chan took Ellen to the show and in her rush to get the front seat in the balcony she fell over the railing.

Chan leaned over and anxiously called: "Ellen, for goodness sake, come back here. It's 50c more down there."

Miss Alexander: Punctuate this sentence: "Miss Jones, the beautiful young lady, walked down the street."

Morgan: I'd say make a dash after Miss Jones.

Dinner Guest: Will you pass the nuts, Mrs. Copenhaver?

Mrs. Copenhaver (absent-mindedly): Yes, I suppose so, but I really should flunk them.

Mr. Endicott was visiting in Richmond and decided to bring his friends some limburger cheese. The station agent informed him that he had to have a special container, so, since they were so expensive he bought a casket crate. When he arrived in Dublin, Mr. Fisher pointed to the box and asked, sympathetically, "A relative of yours?" Mr. Endicott replied that it was an uncle.

"Well, you have one consolation," remarked Mr. Fisher. "He sure is dead."

Miss Repass at theater: Is that seat next to you reserved?

Wise Guy: I guess so. It hasn't made a sound since I came in.

Lecturer: If I've talked too long, it's because I forgot my watch and there is no clock in this hall.

Garnet Bruce: There's a calendar in the back of the room.

Nellie Cox had begged and begged Miss Francis for a solo part in the Glee Club. Finally, when she got an audition she said if she did't get the part she would shoot herself.

Miss Francis listened to the bitter end, then opened a desk drawer and taking out a revolver handed it to Nellie and said, "I'm sorry, my dear, but you gave me no other choice."
